Free Breakfast for Children Program, Milton and Diversey Church

Our job in Rising Up Angry is to develop programs in which the people can defend themselves. Health programs to defend ourselves from the capitalist, profit-oriented medical industry. Breakfast programs to defend our children from hunger. Programs to meet all the needs of the people. We must build these programs to serve the people in a mass way. Only out of the people's struggle can we develop our military tactics. Our military tactics must be part of an overall political strategy. Our self-defense is the defense of the people and the people's programs against all attempts by the ruling class regime to force us into submission.

ALL POWER TO THE PEOPLE!

SELF DEFENSE

ON THE PURELY MILITARISTIC VIEWPOINT

Rising Up Angry has been coming out for 2 years. Since the first issue there have been a lot of changes. In fact, the paper was constantly changing because we were not merely putting out a paper, we were trying to build an organization. We wrote articles and published a paper, but more important, we tried to put our ideas into practice. By working with many people all over the city, our politics kept changing. We brought our ideas to the people and sometimes came into conflict with other ideas. There were discussions, arguments, and even fights about our politics and through this, some things changed. Our ideas were influenced by other people and other people were influenced by us. This process continued and is still continuing - we are constantly changing. If we stopped changing we would become relevant to yesterday, irrelevant to today, and reactionary tomorrow.

Our newspaper has, since the beginning, contained either articles on guns or self-defense in every issue. We printed these articles to spread the idea and conciousness of the need for guns. We felt that a revolutionary organization must, from the beginning, understand the need for armed struggle. To put power in the hands of the people, the people will have to use weapons. We still believe this. We still believe that in the process of revolution there will be violence along the way. But, quite often, we dealt with guns, violence and fighting the enemy as a moral question. For example, we would say that pigs deserve to die, therefore we should kill all the pigs. This statement might be true but this isn't the way in which to build a strategy for revolution. If you were in Chicago with no money and no means of transportation and freedom was in New York, it would not be good enough to say that you deserve your freedom. That would be true but it wouldn't get you to New York. You would have to develop a plan for getting to where you want to go. And each part of the plan should lead you closer to your goal. So, when we take action, we can't think merely of whether or not our act is just, we have to analyze it to see if it leads us down the road to revolution.

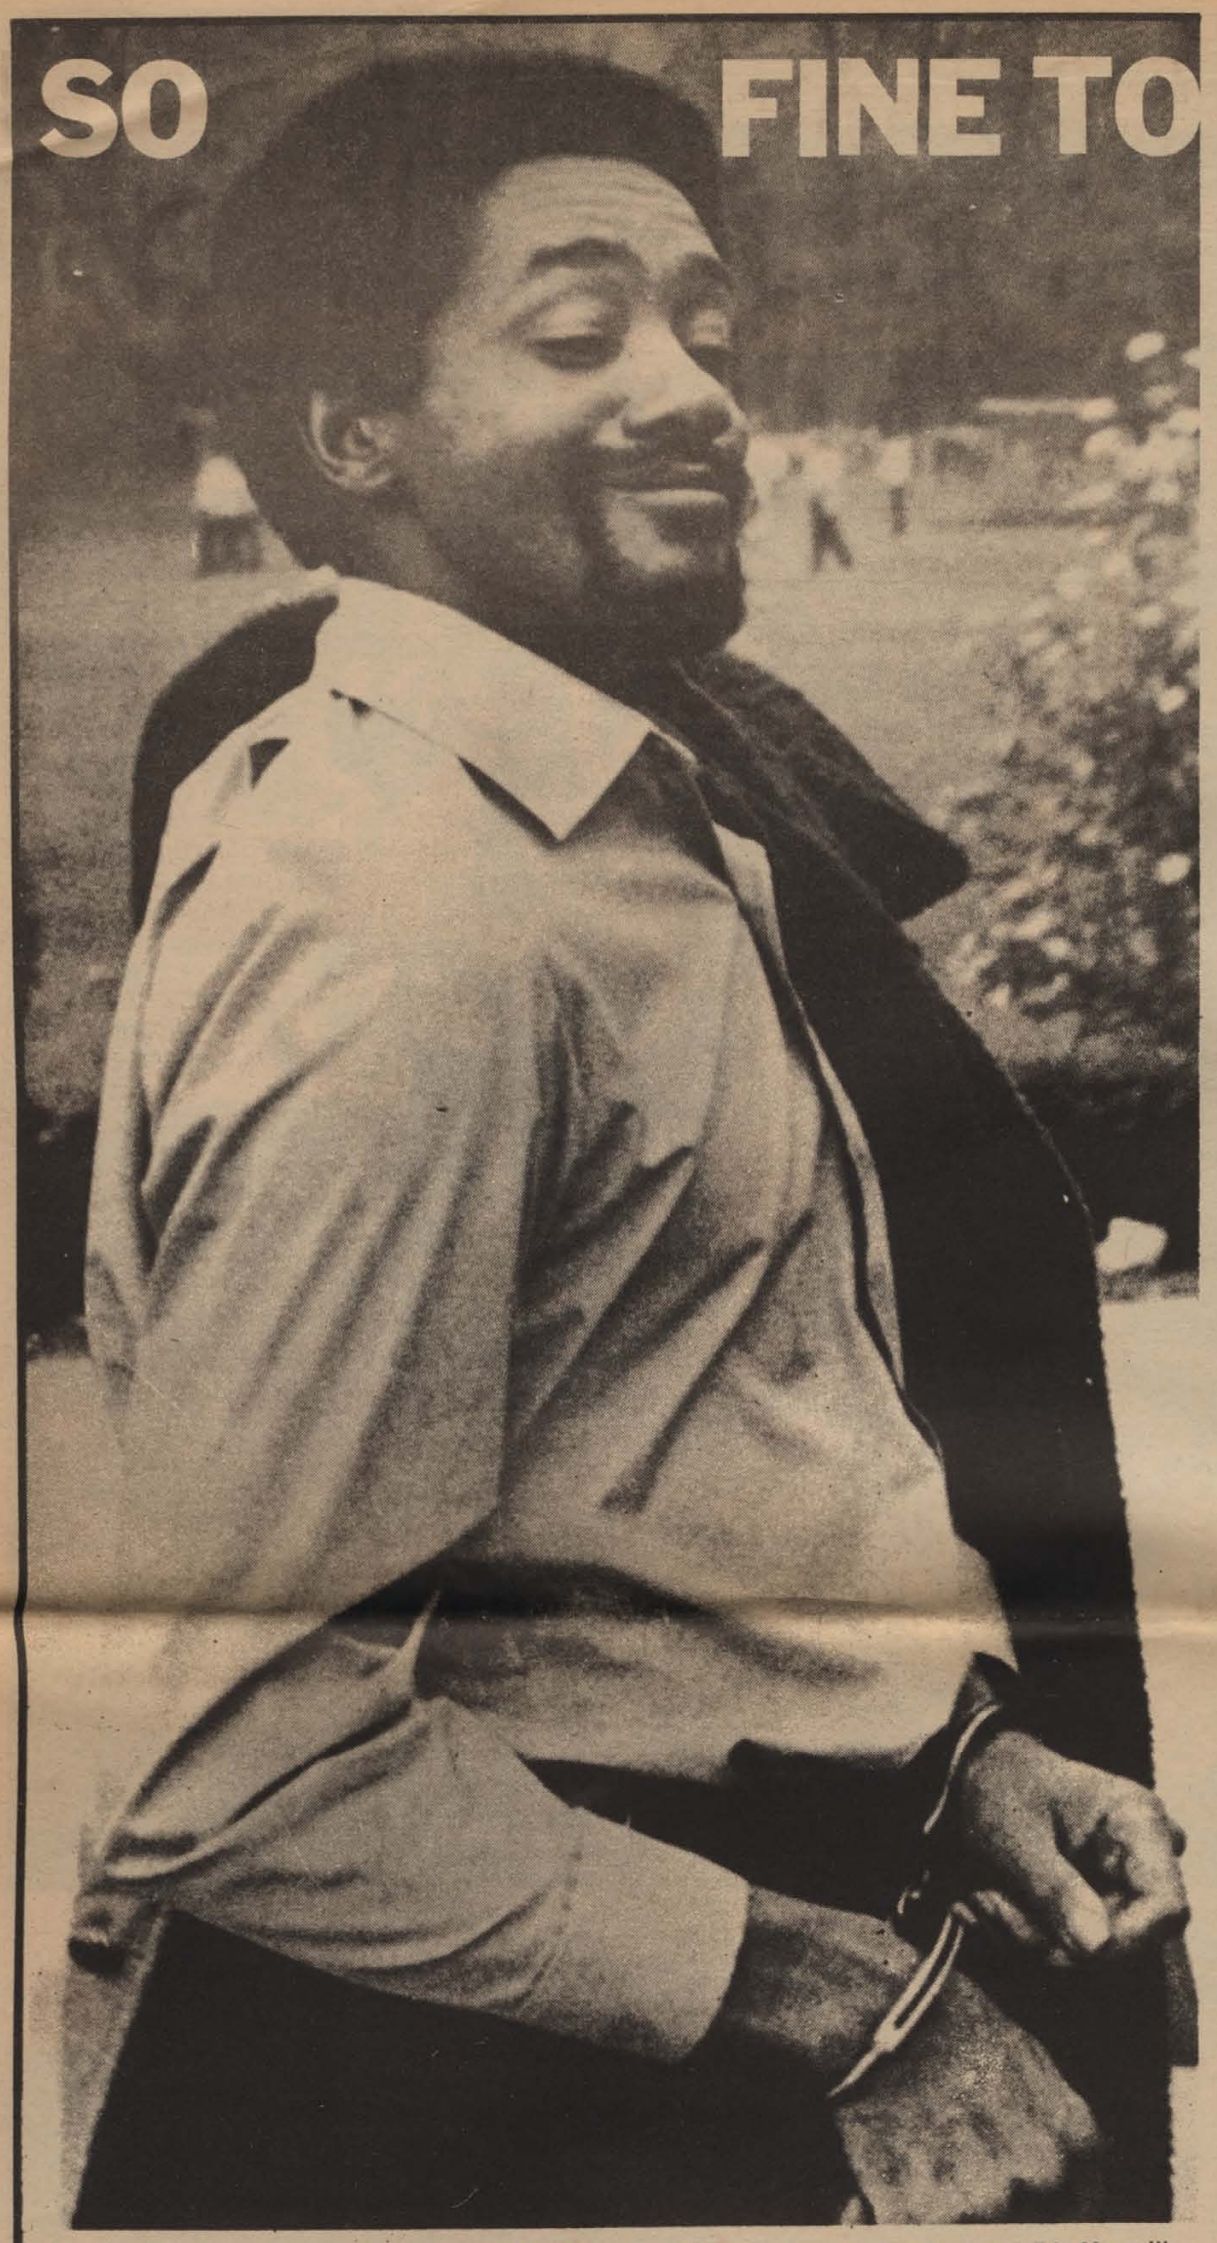
Our error has been that we had the 'purely military viewpoint.' We thought that if we were good militarily we were good politically. We mistakenly thought that if we are strong fighters and good marksmen, then we are good revolutionaries. We gave the impression that guns made the revolution. Nothing could be further from the truth. Guns and technical skills are useful in making revolution but the people are the decisive factor. The people, with a correct plan or strategy, are the most important thing in making revolution. If you wanted to drive a car from one place to another, but had no idea how to get there, it would make no difference if you had just won the Grand Prix. But, if you know exactly where you want to go and how to get there, the average driver will do fine. So it is with revolution. The masses of people will make the revolution, not a handful of excellent soldiers.

When we printed articles about guns we thought that people would learn technical information and put it to use in a revolutionary way. Unfortunately, this did not always happen. Quite often, the information obtained in Rising Up Angry was used for reactionary gang-banging. By separating the political from the military, the technical skills could as easily be used against the people as for the people. We are no longer going to print this type of self-defense article. In the future there will be many self-defense articles in Rising Up Angry, but they will deal with the community defending itself against oppression and exploitation.

Our job in Rising Up Angry is to develop programs in which the people can defend themselves. Health programs to defend ourselves from the capitalist, profit-oriented medical industry. Breakfast programs to defend our children from hunger. Programs to meet all the needs of the people. We must build these programs to serve the people in a mass way. Only out of the people's struggle can we develop our military tactics. Our military tactics must be part of an overall political strategy. Our self-defense is the defense of the people and the people's programs against all attempts by the ruling class regime to force us into submission.

ALL POWER TO THE PEOPLE!

SO FINE TO HAVE YOU BACK !!



After the first day of jury deliberations on May 19 when Bobby Seale was taken back to jail in Montville, Conn., handcuffed as usual, he was confident the jury would proclaim his innocence and reject the government's attempt to send him to the electric chair. Seale's confidence was correct and he has been acquitted of all charges in connection with the 1969 slaying of Panther member Alex Rackley.

ERICKA HUGGINS, LEAVING JAIL FOR THE FIRST TIME IN 2 YEARS.

Comrade Bobby Seale, Chairman of the Black Panther Party and Comrade Ericka Huggins, Deputy Chairman of the New Haven, Connecticut branch of the Party, have been political prisoners for 2 years. The state had trumped up charges of conspiracy to murder and the kidnapping of a fellow Panther, Alex Rackley. It was another one of those trials where a pig surfaced to testify against the servants of the people. In fact, everything pointed to the pig's guilt - not Bobby and Ericka.

Comrade Bobby co-founded the Black Panther Party along with Huey P. Newton, Minister of Defense and Supreme Servant of the People. Since that time in 1966, Bobby Seale has proven his selfless love for the people.

Ericka Huggins has shown the same undying love for the people, despite her own personal hardships. On January 17, 1969, her husband, Deputy Minister of Defense for the Los Angeles Chapter of the Party, John, was shot and killed by agents of the corrupt power structure. Shortly after, she was jail ed, the pigs took her child away from her saying that she was an unfit mother. She had not waivered in her convictions throughout all of this, and she continued to shout, "All Power to the People".

After six long months - their trial finally ended. The jury couldn't reach a decission and after several days of discussion the judge declared it a mis-trial. The jury had voted 11 to 1 for acquittal but one woman held out for a conviction. But, the rest of the jury got to know Bobby and Ericka and the Panther Party pretty well during the trial, they know they are truly servants of the people. And they certainly got a taste of this so-called system of justice. Members of the jury had to be restrained from call ing the judge and witnesses what they are - racist pigs! The judge finally had no choice but to grant their acquittal because it would be impossible to pick an unbiased jury for another trial.

Rising Up Angry welcomes Bobby and Ericka back to the people. We've all been inspired by the spirit of these beautiful people while they were in the clutches of the fascists. While we are working daily to free all oppressed people, we must remember our brothers and sisters who are even less free - because they are still inside the fascists prisons.
FREE ALL POLITICAL PRISONERS!

STATEMENT OF THE MINISTER OF DEFENSE OF THE BLACK PANTHER PARTY, HUEY P. NEWTON ON THE DISMISSAL OF THE CASE AGAINST BOBBY AND ERICKA

The dismissal of the case by the State of Connecticut against our Chairman Bobby Seale and our Comrade Ericka Huggins is a clear indication that the might and power of the People is beginning to show. That the judge in New Haven was forced to say, "It is humanly impossible to find a jury," means several things: that the State was not willing to spend another several million dollars; that a re-trial would be so obscene as to cause an even greater and louder demand from the People for Bobby and Ericka's freedom than before; and that no where could a jury of twelve people be found that that would bring back a conviction.

We certainly will be glad to welcome Bobby and Ericka back among us; but we are not so foolish as to allow this compromise to cloud our vision. Bobby and Ericka will be back among the People, but they are not free, the People are not free; and there are hundreds more political prisoners, George Jackson and the Soledad Brothers, Ruchell Magee, Angela Davis, and all the unknowns, all the Black and poor people viciously incarcerated right now in this country's maximum security camps, and the masses of oppressed people throughout the world that are suffering under the direct or indirect boot of oppression of the U.S. ruling circle.

It is the power of the people and the People only to whom we will be thankful and the People in whom our faith rests for the future. Bobby and Ericka have spent two long years in isolated and barbarous prisons, and nothing will justify those years, except the victory of the People, Black People, poor People of the world over the fascist, imperialist U.S. Empire.

ALL POWER TO THE PEOPLE.

Pigs In The Peoples' Park

Two weeks ago, on May 23, some Rising Up Angry people were in Lincoln Park. We were there rapping with the people and passing out leaflets about our upcoming June 6 benefit. A band began to play and we were digging the jams when a member of our organization, Ronnie Bronski, noticed the pigs harrassing a black brother. Ronnie walked over to investigate the proceedings and inform the brother of his rights. When Ronnie started rapping to the brother about his rights, the pigs grabbed him and started to beat him, and choked him around the neck with a billy club. A photographer who was standing there started taking pictures of all of this. When the pigs saw him, one of them yelled, "grab that nigger!" He then had his camera taken and was beaten all over his head until he began to bleed.

The brothers and sisters in the park came running to the aid of our captured brother and the photographer. The people started throwing bottles and yelling at the pigs. There were about 1,000 people and 30 pigs, who started throwing the bottles back at the people and then pulled out their shotguns and tried to break up the crowd. The people would not leave, so the pigs got in their cars and started to drive through the crowd at speeds up to 50 miles an hour. There were little children in the park who didn't even know what was going on. They had to be picked up and brought behind trees, because these fascist pigs, who have no regard for human life, would have run them down.

Finally, thepigs left with 4 captured brothers. When the pigs got to the station, they began beating on Ronnie again, saying that he started it. Ronnie could hardly breathe, so the pigs brought him to 3 different hospitals, trying to get one of them to say he had asthma, which he's never had in his life. Finally, at Henrotin Hospital, they agreed to say this. Ronnie was beaten all the way to the emergency room, where the doctor gave him a shot of adrenalin to revive him so he could breathe again. When he started to breathe normally, the pigs said that he could go back to the station. On the way from the emergency room to the paddie wagon, the pigs started beating him again, and again Ronnie couldn't breathe. So he was brought back into the hospital and the doctor pleaded with these sadistic pigs to quit beating him or he would die. He was given two more shots of adrenalin and taken back to the 18th District Police Station. We then found out that Ronnie had $1,000 bond and was being held for mob action and resisting arrest.

A few hours after this, the pigs came to the RUA office saying they had a warrant for another member of our organization, who we call Beatle. The warrant was for aggravated assault and mob action. After the pigs came to our office, they went to Beatle's house, where his father answered the door. And when he opened it, the pigs all had their guns out. Beatle already had split. The pigs used this Lincoln Park incident to harrass, jail, and come into the homes of our members and friends.

A couple of days later, Beatle still wasn't found and Ronnie had a court date. About 6 of us went down to Wood Street to see Ronnie before he went back down to Joliet, since none of us could visit him there. When we got to court, there was a pig from Summerdale who had arrested a member of Angry, Mike James, a week before all this Lincoln Park stuff. He started wolfing Mike, calling him names and talking about how he'd meet him in court. Mike paid no attention to this freaking buffoon. About 30 minutes after we were in court, this pig had a bailiff get Mike out of court, and he then put him under arrest. We were all sitting in court, and when this happened, we walked out in the hall to see what was doing. The pig said that Mike threatened him, which was a lie. Mike never said a word to him. The pig put Mike in the Wood Street lockup on a charge of aggravated assault. His bond was $1,000.

A couple of days later, Beatle turned himself in at the 18th District where they told us to go to the 19th, and the only thing he was wanted on was mob action. We turned Beatle in and paid his bond ($2,500) and got him out of jail. The next day he had to go to court on an old disorderly beef. He beat the case, and as he was leaving, this pig came up to him and said he had a warrant on Beatle for aggravated assault. What this pig did was pocket one of Beatle's earlier warrants just to bust him a second time. They kept Beatle in jail all day and finally released him on a $1,250 bond.

This is what happened to us because of Lincoln Park. The pig used this as an excuse to attack our organization. One brother is in jail for an undetermined length of time without any trial and is illegally being held by Joliet prison officials, and two other brothers are facing jail terms and were released on $5,000 bond——and it was NOT just because of a few bottles being thrown at pigs.

STONE GREASE GRAPEVINE

Sisters and brothers from all over the city came to dig the jams and revolutionary raps at the Angry Benefit Dance last Sunday.

We want to thank everyone who came, and those who were there in spirit. Thanks to the bands–Aaron's Rod from the southside, Taxi from PBC, Yama and the Karma Dusters (Euphoria), and Wilderness Road–for the out-of-sight people's music. Thanks to the Rapid Transit Communications for their guerilla theater. We thank the sisters and brothers at Alice's for letting us use their place.

Thanks to the Revolutionary Artists from the south side who were silk screening people's shirts with pictures of a Vietnamese woman and Geronimo. (One brother didn't have a shirt–so he had his chest done.)

The spirit of all the people there made it a time to be remembered. The proceeds help make it possible for the Angry Legal Program to continue to serve the many people who are forced to deal with Chicago's oppressive legal system, helping them to stay out of jail, and making sure they get the best defense they can when dealing with the foul arm of the law.

RISING UP ANGRY

CHORUS
Don't push me
An' don't try to tell me who I am
Don't push me
An' don't you walk on me
Because we rise up now
An we're rising up angry

I've seen you
I've seen your prim little wife
I've watched you
I've watched your button down life
I've seen you kill
Seen you burn
In all this time
We think you'd learn
Its time to change
Time to rearrange

We know you
An' we know what you do
An' now the time
Has been turnin' on you
It's time to live
It's time to build
Our time is now.
We won't be killed
Time waits true
We're something new.

Sisters & Brothers Pig in 18th

Dear RUA:

Last night, a friend and I were walking in Old Town, talking to several people. A pig came up to us and asked for our IDs. We told the pig we didn't have them and he said he was busting us for being runaways. As he put us in the wagon, we proceeded to yell OFF THE PIGS!

When we arrived at the Chicago Street Station, the pig took us upstairs to the Youth Division and called the home where we live. When he found out we weren't runaways, he proceeded to charge us with disorderly conduct (to prove himself as a power and authority figure). They made out all the forms, writing that we were talking to several hippie type characters, and checked our pockets. After the forms were filled out, we were forced to wait for 4 hours. When we finally were allowed to go, we shouted OINK! and OFF THE PIGS! The pigs then told us if we were ever seen in the Old Town area, they would make sure that we were busted again.

This is just a result of too much pig harassment in the city. Let's get it together and off all the motherfuckers! ALL POWER TO THE PEOPLE!

2 Sisters

2 Years Waits Trial

One of the ways the whole legal system––from pigs to courts to lawyers––is used against us is that if we don't have money we have it sit in jail until trial, whether we are innocent or not. And that puts us in a trick bag because of you've only got so much bread you can either use it to make bond or you can stay in the slam and use the bread for legal expenses. If the state wants to keep you off the streets, for whatever reason, they can keep putting off your trial.

Eddie Morales from the Northside, has been in jail over 2 years waiting for trial. He's charged with murder, but the states attorney has no witnesses, so the brother's sitting down there at 26th & California doing all this time. Eventually he's probably going to beat the beef and there's no way the pigs can repay him for those lost years. He's spending his youth behind bars.

This is just one example of the fact that the legal system has nothing to do with justice. It has to do with class––if you're rich you probably won't spend time, but if you ain't rich or you're black or brown or red or yellow, you'll spend money you don't have and time you can't afford to lose.

FREE ALL THE PRISONERS!

GI's

FREE THE RAMSTEIN 2

William Burrell and Larry Jackson, 2 black brothers, are facing from 10 to 15 years in a German penitentary. They are charged with shooting an MP at Ramstein Air Base in Zweibrucken, Germany. This case points out only too clearly that you can't get away from this fascist, racist US government just by leaving the country.

Both of the brothers left the US to try to make a better life for themselves and their families in West Germany. They quickly found out that the US controls Germany militarily and economically, and if they ever wanted to be free, they'd have to help bring down the US monster.

So Larry and Will began building a revolutionary movement with black GIs stationed in Germany. They helped distribute a revolutionary GI paper, "Voice of the Lumpen." On one of their trips, Larry, Will and two other brothers entered Ramstein Air Base by mistake. When they realized that they were on base, they made a U-turn, but the racist MP approached the car with his hand on his .38 pistol. What happened next isn't clear. At one point though the pig reached into the car and grabbed the keys out of the ignition. The result being that the pig is now laying in a bed in the US Army hospital in Landstuhl. He was shot.

Larry and Will were arrested and charged with his shooting, even though the other two persons in the car haven't been identified, nor the weapon found. It's obvious that one of the other two revolutionary brothers in the car shot the pig and then spaced. But the German pigs, who are taking orders from the CIA, don't care about justice––all they want to do is get Larry and Will off the set for 10 to 15 years because they are revolutionaries.

As this case clearly points out, justice anywhere in the US empire is a myth. Larry and Will couldn't escape from the fascist US government and neither can we. We all have to take a stand to fight imperialism and make a commitment to free the people wherever we are.

FREE LARRY! FREE WILL!
FREE ALL POLITICAL PRISONERS!

All Power to the Sisters & Brothers Who

ACTION BEGINS AT CHICAGO BEACHES

MORSE BEACH

1 The pigs have been coming down hard on the brothers and sisters at the beach for dope, drinking, curfew and other bullshit charges. They've especially been hasseling people about the beaches' 11 p.m. curfew. So for the last few weeks a group known as the Fire Tribe have been organizing people, and on June 4th the people said NO MORE!

Over 500 people gathered on the beach chanting "Power to the People!" The pigs had all the streets near the beach blocked off since 9 p.m. and were steadily calling for reinforcements. Things started getting heavy around 10 to 11. People gathered around and tore down the curfew sign and threw it at the pigs parked in their cars. This was followed by bottles and rocks. At 5 minutes to 11, the pig cars pulled out and about 200 of Mayor Daley's stormtroopers began marching down Morse Ave. toward the barricade made to hold the beach.

When the pigs got close, the people threw everything that could be thrown--bottles, boards, rocks, even garbage cans. The pigs went beserk--some pulling off their badges and beating anyone they could get their hooves on. The people were pushed back, but not beaten, and they started a huge bonfire and another barricade to keep out the fire engines. According to the pig media, only 6 people were arrested and three pigs were seriously injured, and there were reports of trashing on Broadway Ave.

RIGHT ON! The pigs know that the people will no longer stand for their gestapo tactics and will stand up and fight back.

THE PARKS AND BEACHES BELONG TO THE PEOPLE!

2 It was a beautiful Saturday night and hot as hell so we decided to go up to the Wilson beach. When we got there it was really out-a-sight—a cool breeze and very few pigs in sight. We weren't there long before we started hearing all this chanting and music. It sounded like a lot of brothers and sisters were having a good time. After awhile, the words in chants started getting louder and clearer—"Power—Power—Power to the People, Right On!" And thats when we knew that they were our kind of people, so we decided to go check it out. As we got closer to the crowd we noticed a pig car slowly pulling up to the crowd. Since it was already after beach closing time—we figured it might be a heavy scene. But soon we realized that pig had to be crazy to stop—people were shouting "Off the pigs—Kill the pigs—Power to the People!" And sure enough—that pig just kept going. When we got up to the crowd, it was really beautiful. Everybody was digging each other and having a good time—making their own music with beer cans and sharing all the j's and beer. At first, it seemed like everyone knew each other but as it turned out people were from all different scenes—Augusta & Richmond, Wilson Park, Uptown, Addison & Western—all over. But it didn't matter if they knew each other cause everyone was into having a good time and showing the pigs that the beaches belong to the people. One brother that we talked to was a biker but he said that he dug the revolution too. He said that what he respected about revolutionaries was that they had the guts to stand up for the people and for what they believe is right. He said that he was into that too—like he told us stories about some hassles that he's had with the pigs because he refused to keep his mouth shut when there was a jive bust. He said he's gotten a lot of heat cause of this but it was cool cause you gotta be about standing up for what you think is right.

Another brother was rapping about how much he dug Morse Beach—especially when he hears over the radio that 400 people fought the pigs to keep the beaches open. He rapped about how the people have got to be together and to think about ways to move and to attack if we're going to win what we need.

Eventually, people started splitting cause it was getting late into the night. But it was cool cause they split when they wanted to, not when the pigs wanted them to. And we left too—feeling high off the beer but especially high off the people!

THE SPIRIT OF THE PEOPLE IS GREATER THAN THE MAN'S TECHNOLOGY!

SISTERS CIRCULATE REVOLUTIONARY INFORMATION. . .

OPPRESSION & PIGS CAUSE RIOTS

CHATTANOOGA RIOTS

As the summer approaches, the so-called riot season also approaches. What a lot of people don't understand is that heat doesn't cause riots; oppression hunger, rotten housing, no jobs, lousy recreational facilities, and police brutality cause riots. Heat is just an aggravating factor. The pigs instigate and spread riots.

In Chattanooga, Tennessee, there was a disturbance at a black housing project. The Governor of Tennessee, Winfield Dunn, ordered 1,500 National Guardsmen and 80 state troopers in to Chattanooga. The mayor, Robert K. Walker, ordered a dusk to dawn curfew.

Now, this wasn't a major riot and no one was injured until the pigs came on the scene. And, sure enough, the pigs shot and killed an unarmed black man. The pigs claimed that he had a weapon in his hand; several witnesses say he didn't even have a cigarette. He was murdered in cold blood for being black.

We've got to understand that, to prevent more people from being senslessly murdered. We've got to eleminate the reasons for riots. The only way to wipe out oppression, hunger, racism, rotten housing, police brutality, is for the people - all oppressed people - to move to control their own communities. We've got to become masters of our country and to do this we've got to take the power from the pigs and put it in the hands of the people.

MATHER PIGLETS

There has been an escalation on the part of the pigs to keep the students down. These pigs have recently hired some straight students (piglets) to do the pigs' work. These piglets patrol the halls and the washrooms of the school to keep the students from smoking and doing anything else considered "immoral." If they catch people smoking, they report it to the assistant principal who'll call you down to his office and kick you out, or whatever.

And these chicken-shit piglets, who claim to be high school students, call the pigs on brothers or sisters outside the school. Like if my girlfriend goes to Mather and I'm waiting for her outside the school, these piglets call the pigs and have me busted. That's been happening a lot.

The brothers and sisters at Mather are hip to this bullshit. If I were a piglet, I'd be scared that somebody might rip me off.

LATIN 6 TRAY PANTHER ORGANIZATION

The Latin 6 Tray Panther Organization is trying to become a revolutionary organization. Most of the time we're in Snake Alley--you know, near Campbell and McClean. We believe in "All Power to the People" and "Off the Pig." The pigs constantly hassle us for no reason.

We used to be Latin P Stones (Spanish Cobras), but we changed our name and we're trying to get out of a gang thing into a revolutionary organization. But a lot of the old hassles and old fighting is still going on. We're trying to cool out the gang banging and make peace treaties so we can spend more time on revolutionary activity.

Love the People & Fight the Real Enemy!

PBC Daley's Boys

Oppression of the brothers and sisters in the neighborhood by the pigs is getting a lot heavier with the coming of summer. One of the prime instigators of this oppression is Jim Gavin, the owner of Gavin's Tap, located at Paulina & Barry. Gavin is the local democratic precinct captain and because of this title he thinks that he can run the neighborhood. When people come into his bar, Gavin tells them outrageous lies and rotten bullshit about the brothers and sisters of the PBC. He tried to prevent one brother's grandmother from moving across the street into a new crib.

Lackey Gavin always refers to brothers and sisters as punks and such. But the true punks are Gavin's baseball players (he sponsors a team for men over 21).

Check this out. His ball players come into the tavern about 7 at night and then proceeded to get loaded. Usually by 10 or 11 they can hardly see straight. Then they come out and start yelling, cursing, and threatening any brothers or sisters they see. One time there were brothers sitting across the street rapping and the Gavin chumps started throwing cherry bombs to show how "bad" they were.

Other times, they have tried to attack us, thinking that we'll run because they're so "bad." But they freak when they see that nobody splits and they can't intimidate us. In the end, they run like dogs with their tails between their legs. These are the true punks that have invaded the neighborhood.

Another chump lackey is the assistant precinct captain, Ted Machen. He is so much of a fool that he carries a night stick around with him to intimidate people. He also must have a police radio or something, because almost everytime the pigs come to harass the brothers and sisters on the block, this chump Machen crawls from his hideout. He runs around like a crazed dog shouting irrelevant things to the pigs, such as "Arrest them all——they're all punks." or "I'll sign any complaint to put them all in jail." He also seems to have witnessed everything that we supposedly did. When he does sign a complaint he never shows up in court because he knows nothing to begin with. All this does is harrass a brother or sister because they have to go to lockup and get bonded out and lose a day's pay when they go to court. Ted *Machen is another of the true punks in the neighbor*hood.

All of this repression is because the brothers and sisters have tightened up and are beginning to understand the real enemy. Gavin and his cronies have the lowest shit jobs on the Daley machine and they think they are mightier than the people. But they are fools dreaming a dead dream.

INDIAN MOTHER

"I'M HIDING MY CHILDREN"

On Tuesday, April 8, Mrs. Carol Warrington, a 36-year-old mother of six, was arrested. Her so-called crime was taking her children out of school because their own people were being discriminated against in the school's history books. Mrs. Warrington is an American Indian. Because of this crime, she was jailed for six hours on a complaint filed by the Board of Education. Mrs. Warrington, who lives at 1944 W. Melrose, was finally released on $500 bond after being charged with violating a law which requires children to attend school.

Mrs. Warrington, a Menominee Indian, said that she withdrew her kids from Jahn Elementary School in April because of the "picture presented of American Indians in the history books." She said that the school's history books write Indians off as "nothing but savages and nothing but brutal people." She said that these books never "say anything good about American Indians" nor do they tell the real story about "what the white man did to the Indians and to this once-beautiful and unpolluted land."

And Mrs. Warrington is not the only one who has taken a stand. In Chicago, out of the 5,000 American Indian children of high school or elementary school age, only 1,300 go to school. According to Mrs. Warrington, there are "many other parents hiding their children out. I'm hiding mine out now. They're not going to find them. They're in Illinois, but I will not say if they're in Chicago or not."

UPTOWN: INDIANS SIT IN FOR DECENT HOUSING

On Wednesday June 9 about 30 Indians from Uptown sat in at the Department of Urban Renewal relocation office at 1025 W. Sunnyside. They sat in to demand decent housing for the people of Uptown who are being driven out of their present apartments because of urban renewal. Urban renewal, better known as people removal, in Uptown means moving all of the poor people out, destroying the community, and building housing that only middle- and upper-middle-class people can afford.

Our Native American brothers and sisters have been leading the fight against urban renewal. Earlier, a number of Indian families, supported by the Young Patriots Organization, tookover a building at 1142 W. Ainslie. This building had been vacated for urban renewal, but the people needed apartments, so they liberated the building. It's the beginning of a squatters movement. This whole scene has had the Summerdale pigs uptight; they don't dig poor people just taking what is rightfully theirs, yet the pigs knew how much support there is in Uptown for the squatters, so the pigs have been looking for an excuse to vamp.

On Wednesday morning, the pigs found that excuse. The pigs said they found a stolen car in front of 1142 W. Ainslie, and that one of the alleged car theifs was somewhere inthe building. So they vamped on every apartment in the building. "They came in, kicking doors down and dragging men out of the apartments," according to Mrs. Betty Jack, one of the tenants. The pigs rounded up 8 men and took them down to the station, but none were charged. As it turned out, the car, supposedly stolen, had been loaned to two of the men.

Because of this vamp and the sit-in, the whole question of urban renewal and decent housing is again on people's minds in uptown. We've got to follow the lead of our sisters and brothers at 1142 W. Ainslie. If the city won't give us housing, we'll just have to take it.

PIGS SET UP BOMBING, MURDER BOMBER!

On May 15, 1970, Larry Ward, a 22-year-old Vietnam vet with two purple hearts and an Army Commendation Medal, died in Seattle. He had been murdered in cold blood by the Seattle Police Dept. Ward, out of the service for only 7 weeks, was paid $75 to bomb a real estate office by Alfred R. Burnett, a pig informant.

Although there had been 60 bombings in Seattle Ward couldn't have been involved in any because he had been in the service. The pigs knew all of this, but they didn't have any leads on who was really doing the bombings, so they had to set up a bombing and catch the bomber red-handed so they could look good.

They really wanted to look good because they surrounded Larry Ward and opened fire. Afterwards the informant, Alfred Burnett, said: "The police wanted a bomber and I got one for them. I didn't know Larry Ward would be killed." The authorities in Seattle have not prosecuted the police, either for arranging the bombing or murdering the bomber.

Is it any wonder police are called pigs?

Drug Busts

TASK FORCE POINT SYSTEM ALTERED
FEWER DRUG BUSTS

People who attend the Hall of Injustice at 26th & California regularly have noticed a marked decrease in the number of people in narcotics court. We investigated as to why and came up with the following information. It is far from complete, and any information that a brother or sister can add will be appreciated.

In the past there have been nearly 400 cases a day going through narcotics court. For some time, the number has been on the rise. Recently the number has been reduced to around 250 to 300 cases daily. This is due in part to a change in the Task Force (of the Chicago Police Dept.) point system. In the past, a task force pig worked on an 8 point system, with a drug bust earning him 5 points—the same as robbery. It was, of course, easier to set some kid up on a drug bust than risking one's self in a robbery situation. But now a drug bust is only worth 2 points, nearly the same as a traffic bust (1 point), and it takes too much effort to make the point quota on drug busts.

Cuba is about 90 miles off the coast of the United States, but there is a world of difference between the two countries. Cuba has achieved a socialist revolution and the U.S. thinks it can smash such revolutions with brute force. Since the Cuban people threw the U.S. big business and military interests out of their country, old uncle sam is pretty uptight about the 'free island'. Especially since hundreds of young people have been going down on work brigades (Venceremos Brigades) over the past 2 years to learn how they kicked the imperialist leeches out of their country and what the people have been able to build since they purged their country of the pigs.

Rising Up Angry was able to send us, a sister and brother from the organization, on the last brigade. We worked with the Cuban people, cutting sugar cane, to show our solidarity with the revolution and then we toured the Island for 2 weeks.

As I said, there is a world of difference between Cuba and the U.S. and one of the hardest things for us to try to make people understand here, is the Cubans attitude toward work. Everyone works in Cuba. Now the Cuban people have so much pride in their work because they are working together, for each other, they are no longer slaves for the capitalists. After hundreds of years of corrupt rule, the people have been scarred by hunger, lack of medical care and the country has been scarred by underdeveloped land and industry. But, now, the country belongs to the people and they generate a spirit toward work that enables them to accomplish the goals that they set and to build and keep their revolution.

In Cuba, workers control the factories, for example, the workers collectively make decisions on productivity. Their lives have improved tremendously. Before the revolution, the peope didn't have milk much less meat and now all food, including meat, is free. Clothing, housing and medical needs are also free for all workers and their families. Plus they are paid.

Since Cuba is an agricultural country with sugar cane as the most important crop - the harvest is very important. The whole country is involved. Brigades of students, of teachers, of health workers, and others, cut cane to contribute to the revolution. Those who do the best work and have the best attitude, become work heroes and travel around the country to participate with other workers. Our Venceremos Brigade cut with a work hero named Ronaldo Castro, and he could really move!

We went to a town that was completely built after the revolution for the people who worked in the rice fields. Before the revolution the people had lived in falling down huts - there were still some left - with no medical care, no plumbing, electricity, little food and clothing. Now there is a town with schools, a hospital, day care, movies, a place to dance, and large apartment buildings. A young couple named Maria and Miguel Hernandez, invited us into their apartment. They told us what it was like before the revolution - they said we couldn't imagine it, it was so terrible. They now have a T.V. and a radio, many appliances and new furniture. These were free to all the workers. They also received a salary that could be spent on anything extra they want. Miguel was also studying to be an agricultural engineer. They told us that they would fight or die for their revolution.

Inside the schools, theory and practice are united. A student in agriculture is given books to study and also works on a field to put their knowledge into practice. At the same time, he or she is encouraged to experiment with new agricultural methods which, in the long run, helps the economy.

We met young people who were learning to be teachers. They were going to school and at the same time they were teaching classes. Cuban people respect the need for education, especially since over 90% of the people were illiterate before the revolution. Can you dig how beautiful it is for a 60 year old grandmother to be learning to read from a 16 year old student teacher?

isn't any uptight competition, among classmates, to know it all and get the highest grade on a test. It's just the opposite. Christina said, for example, there might be a student who studies hard and does very well on tests, but doesn't care if other people do as well. He or she is not respected because he or she does not respect the people enough to share the knowledge. Instead, the best student is one who is serious about learning and not concerned with being better than everyone else in a competitive way. As part of eliminating this competition, they are working to eleminate the whole grading system.

Christina said that before the revolution, one reason that illiteracy was so high was that people, including young children, had to work constantly just to stay alive. The revolution has changed this in 2 ways. The younger people can go to school where food, clothing, housing, everything including a small allowance, is taken care of. And for the older people, they have brought the classrooms into their lives by sending teachers to all the farms and factories where they have classes at night. So, through these two things, everyone can learn and there is no elite group of intellectuals.

There is no elite group of doctors either. In Cuba, medical care is a human right! After the revolution, a priority on medical research and training doctors was necessary to begin to deal with the desperate medical needs of the people. Under the dictatorship of Batista (a bosom buddy of the american dollar) the people of Cuba suffered and died from curable diseases because of the total lack of medical facilities for the people. You had to be filthy rich to get any medical attention. (Sound familiar?) Now, no matter who you are or where you are, all medical care is free!

We were in a village high in the mountains where the people didn't have access to any medical care before the revolution. Now the mothers bring their children to a clinic right in their village once a week.

The Cuban people not only get medical care when they're sick, but they also have preventative medicine to make sure they don't get sick! People are innoculated to prevent them from getting communicable diseases and regular check-ups are necessary.

One thing that was apparant where ever we traveled, was the respect that men and women had for each other as they worked side by side. When I mentioned this to a Cuban sister, she smiled and said, 'This is our revolution within the revolution.' There are free community day care centers for children so that women aren't just tied to the home. There's free birth control and it impressed me a lot to find out that they don't use the pill because they don't think it's safe to take. Instead they have developed a method similar to the coil. It's much safer, doesn't slip and can be used by women who have not already had children. Also, abortions are available upon request. The traditional w ork roles are breaking down, too. For instance, women are in leadership positions in the government, the military and medical field. All of these things were accomplished thru struggle against the old ideas in their culture and it is a continuing struggle.

Throughout our stay in Cuba, we saw the People's love of their country and the revolution. We saw what the Power of the People can do. When we visited Palya Giron (Bay of Pigs) and heard people rapping about the battle and how the people beat the imperialists - we understood that the Cuban people had shed their blood to preserve their freedom and they would again. The people don't let their guard down - especially only 90 miles away from the enemy of all revolutionary people in the world - american imperialism. The people keep themselves militarily prepared to deal with invasions.

But we were welcomed by the Cuban people and when we left they sent back their greetings and revolutionary love to you, the brothers and sisters at home.

They know that the enemy is the government, the pigs and Nixon - not us. They said we are all part of the world revolutionary family.

URBAN RENEWAL ON LILL STREET

On Memorial Day, May 31, the tenants at 871 and 873 Lill Street each got a letter telling them to move within 30 days. The letter said the hot water, would be cut off on July 1 in order to renovate the building. The people who live there are all hard working families. Where will they go on July 1?

Cooper Management cares for this property as well as a brand new apartment building half way down the block, the laundromat, and a few other buildings nearby. The new owner of the buildings at 871/873 Lill, just purchased the buildings in order to renovate them (gut it completely and rebuild everything except the outside brick walls). They have already torn out the sidewalk in front and gutted the first floor of one section. Three of the families in the apartment just moved in less than 2½ months ago. (Many families on this whole block and in this apartment building were thrown out of Larabee Street when that was turned into a desert last year.) No one told them the building was being sold. The rental agent claims he didn't know himself. They claim that the city said they would have to remodel or tear the building down, that no one had any idea that this would happen.

Some of the people at the other end of the building are waiting for a letter to come any day giving them notice to leave. Cooper management hasn't had the decency yet to inform the other tenants of their plans.

The company that owns this property is aware of the 'City Urban Renewal Plan', to modify the city so that more middle class families will return and bring more profits back into the city. Many people have been hit by this new storm by the realtors to try to keep their profits up. To some of us it seems strange that there are two fires in two weeks on the same block (one fire started in the attic of 888 W. Lill. The fire dept. put it out right away, but it's an old wooden frame house, and it may now have to be torn down.) Then a dozen other families get notices to leave.

The owners and management want to change the face of the neighborhood. This is a very systematic attempt by the landlords together with the Dept. of Urban Removal to get rid of certain unwelcome tenants - poor people.

Who benefits from what is happening? The owners of the burnt out buildings still get their insurance money. And the company renovating the apartment gets a low-interest loan for the construction. As soon as they finish, they'll make the whole amount back 10 times over in exorbitant rent, which many middle class families will be unable to pay. The wood burning fire places, paneling, new plumbing, electrical works, and gas lights out front will be reserved for special tenants whom the landlords can choose.

This is a very well devised program to change the whole city. But where is the plan to find new housing for the families that live there now? They'll have to move to another old home, which may be torn down or remodeled soon, too. The people always get shafted in these out-for-profit deals.

The capitalist, fascist landlords have no regard for human life, which is the true nature of all pigs.

We want decent housing fit for the shelter of human beings. We're tired of being shoved around so some rich landlord can pull in a big profit. We should learn from the experience of being thrown out of our homes on Larabee Street, in Uptown and Lincoln Park: We MUST begin to fight this process of people removal to defend our right to live.

Rush Jailed

In February of 1969, Bobby Rush, Deputy Minister of Defense for the Illinois Chapter of the Black Panther Party, and other members of the Party went to Champaign to speak to the students, at their invitation, at the University of Illinois. While Bobby and his comrades were staying in a hotel there, they were attacked by as many as forty white racists armed with guns, bats, beer bottles and other weapons. Immediately after this unprovoked attack upon Deputy Minister Rush and his companions, the Champaign Police Department moved in and arrested, not their home spun racist night riders, but Bobby Rush, charging him with illegal possession of a weapon and unlawful use of a weapon, charges he was later convicted of.

Though convicted of these trumped up charges, Bobby Rush remained free on appeal bond until recently, when on May 21st the reactionary US supreme court denied his right to appeal. Bobby surrendered himself in order to prevent the Chicago Police Department from using the excuse of serving a warrant on him as justification to attack the Black Community and Black Panther Party offices.

Because the power structure recognizes his leadership abilities and understands that he is truly a dedicated servant of the people, he is in jail. He could not be bought off by promise of individual material gain. To find out what you can do in order to 'Free Bobby', contact:

Bricked pig

"HOW COULD YOU DO A THING LIKE THAT?"

Last week, at Montrose Harbor, pig officer White was almost killed. He was hit between the shoulders by a brick and he crashed into a tree, causing his pig cycle to fall on top of him. As for you cats who found him and helped him to the hospital - "How could you do a thing like that?"

You thought he was a brother? He is a pig from Summerdale. They're the pigs that are always getting caught robbing people's houses. You thought White was serving the people? Go into the neighborhood of 20th district, you'll hear all about pig White.

"How can you live with yourself or tell a single soul?" I don't think you can. You'd lose all your friends or get your ass whipped.

Just imagine - no more pig White! Maybe that would shock his fellow fascists, Jacoby, Jubas and Kulletto into knowing that they may be next in line to feel the people's wrath. The people of 20th have long been harassed, brutalized and shot by these same lacky dogs.

Boycott

HYDE PARK HIGH SCHOOL

The struggle over who should run Hyde Park High, the community or the Board of Education, was renewed Thursday, May 20, when Mrs. Anna Kolheim, the principal, returned to schod. She had been driven out of the school in April by a student boycott. Now she was back, helping to fire the teachers who she thought had conspired against her. But firing "ringleaders" doesn't work when the masses of people are against you. So Thursday the right-on brothers and sisters and some of the teachers began a boycott that virtually shut down Hyde Park High Schod.

By Monday, the pigs saw how determined the people were and began making arrests. Mrs. Lenore Wolf, and William Rothman were arrested for inducing the students to truancy for passing out leaflets. Robert Jones, a student, was cracked for battery and resisting arrest for supposedly hitting pig William Parker. Two other students, both juveniles, were arrested for resisting and property damage. The boycott by both students and teachers has grown.

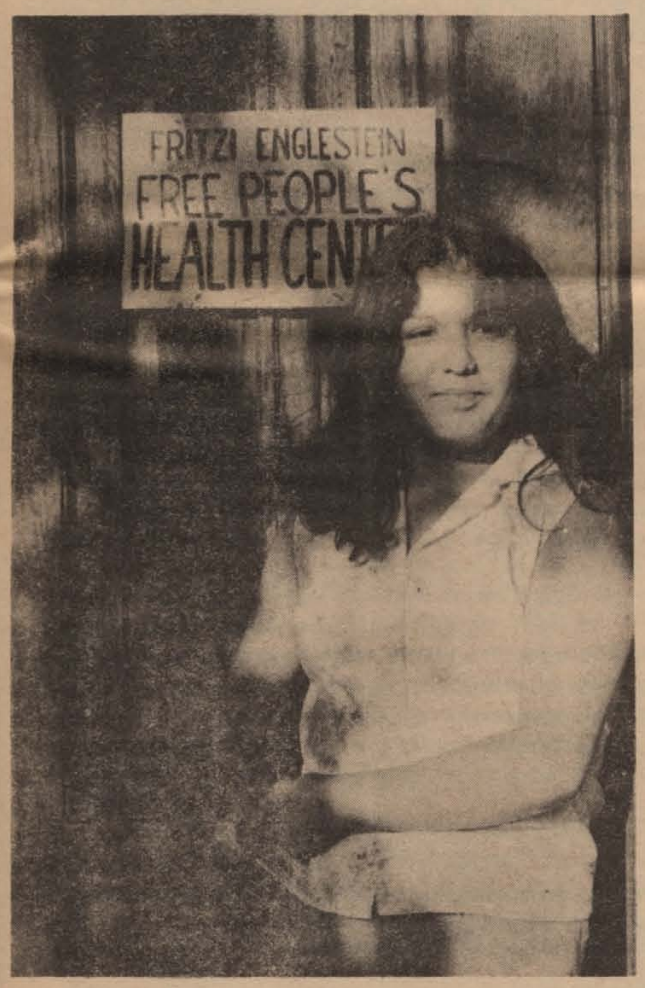
FREE HEALTH ATTACKED

Sister at hearings



For the past few years progressive people in communities across the United States have seen the needs of the people and have begun to serve these needs following the vanguard example of the Black Panther Party. At this time there are 7 "serve the people" free health clinics operating in Chicago. The Spurgeon "Jake" Winters, Betances Free Health Center, Fritzie Englestein, Young Patriots, Benito Juarez, Englewood, and LADO clinics. Mayor Daley and his rulingclique are scared to death of these clinics because they see in them the Might and Power of the People is working for the good of the people and will stop at nothing, including dethroning Daley and all others like him in order to see that People's basic needs are taken care of.

Last week Daley's lackies on the City Council, in city hall, on the Board of Health and the Big Business doctors plotted, drew up, and voted in a law to control and shut down the free clinics. This would once again leave the people to suffer from bad or no medical attention at the hands of the rich doctors and hospitals.

The law was written by Dr. Murray Brown, head of the Chicago Board of Health. This is the first time in all his 11 years that he has felt something was so important that he wrote it up as a law. This new law will take the place of an old law (from the '30's) written to close down a clinic that was serving the families of a progressive labor union. Since the 1930's it was never used again until 2 years ago, when it was used in an attempt to close the free clinics run by the Black Panther Party, the Young Lords Organization, and the Young Patriots. But now Murray Brown wants new, stronger, more all-governing law. (The old one said that free health clinics must have spitoons for the men and other specific regulations.) Murray Brown's new law has 5 parts to it:

1. All health facilities must be regulated by the city.

2. To do this all clinics not owned or operated by doctors or hospitals must be registered and licensed by the city (along with a couple hundred dollars fee).

3. Once licensed, all records must be opened to the Board of Health.

4. The Board of Health can dream up and impose any regulation it wants to insure "good service."

5. If the Board of Health feels that any facility has broken any regulation, including the 4 above, the police can "legally" move in and shut it down. Once closed, the clinic would remain closed unless the clinic wanted to go to court to prove its innocence.

One of the jobs of the Board of Health is to provide all medical facilities with free innoculation material (polio shots, smallpox shots, diptheria shots, etc.). This is the city's responsibility to help combat communicable disease. Last winter Murray Brown admitted to the people and the press that he had black listed all the free serve the people clinics and would not give them any materials. And these clinics serve and are responsible to the poorest communities in the city. It is clear that Brown has never wanted the people's medical needs to be taken care of for free. It is clear that Murray Brown does not believe that Health Care is a human right. On June 1st, Dr. Murray Brown brought this new law before a committee of the City Council to be voted on. Murray Brown told why he wanted this power. After that, people from all over the city told why the clinics (which are responsible directly to the people they serve) are so good and how Murray Brown has a long history of not serving the people. These witnesses were harrassed, herded around and even beaten. On several occasions Daley's lack, Homan, threatened all witnesses that they might be thrown out of the room. When Kit Kamatsu, from the Patriots Clinic in Uptown, was testifying about the Board of Health Clinics, Homan said that Mrs. Kumatsu's testimony was irrelevant and ordered her shutup. She kept talking, as it was her right to do so. Four pigs ran up, grabbed her and dragged her out of the courtroom. Kit's husband, Dave, immediately tried to help her and a pig put a hammerlock on him and pulled him out of the courtroom, too. The pigs were trying to keep all the rest of the people in the courtroom. By this time Kit was laying on the floor at the end of the hall vamitting and coughing from being kicked, and her husband and a medical student had been cuffed and taken to another floor. Kit was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital. She signed out at midnight.

During the testimony, only 2 of the 9 aldermen protested the behavior of the committee and pigs. Alderman Simpsgn of the 44th ward and alderman Anna Langford of the 16th ward were sympathetic to the health needs of the people and opposed the new law. They saw they were out numbered and walked out in protest after Kit was beaten. Anna Langford stated that everything Mrs. Kumatso had said was true and that the chairman (Homan) hadn't even listened. But he and the other pro-Daley lacky's (6 in all) weren't supposed to listen. Daley had gotten 7 of his lacky's on the committee and the law was approved 7 to 2 in committee and passed on for a vote by the whole city council on June 11. The law will be passed and the pigs will attempt to close the clinics. But the beat of the people is growing stronger and the Daley machine is very foolish if it thinks it can beat the power of the people. Health care is a human right. The struggle around the clinics is coming and the clinics must be defended.

Kids Fight Lies !

A couple of weeks ago, some people from the Board of Health came to rap to us at Agassiz school. They started telling us all about their 'great' work. One of the guys at school knew the Board of Health was trying to mess over the People's Free Health Clinics by trying to shut them down. He said, "Right on to the Free People's Clinics." The Board of Health people turned red and started telling us how bad the free clinics are because they are dirty, don't have doctors seeing people, and the people running them aren't responsible. The kids got mad 'cause a lot of us and our parents are patients at the clinics and a lot of our families work at the clinics, so they were telling us that we weren't responsible. We also said that our folks used to pay a lot of money for rotten care. At the free people's clinic they take time with you and tell you what's really wrong and treat you with concern and respect. Some of our teachers said we had a good point and the principal saw he couldn't win - so the subject was changed. But, we knew we were right.

SOLIDARITY WITH CAIRO

Cairo, Illinois is a town on the rocks. The Black Community of Cairo, led by the United Front of Cairo, wants decent treatment (as opposed to racist treatment) when they shop and work in Cairo. The white power structure wants to continue its racist fascist treatment of Blacks and has increased hostility and repression in the Black community. For example, the police are trying to railroad Levi Garrett on an attempted murder charge. And they have raided Pyramid Courts, a Black housing project in Cairo, a number of times resulting numerous false arrests. Illegal search warrants had been issued to invade people's homes and now suits are being filed by the people against the State's Police.

Because there is a just struggle, in common with all poor and oppressed people, the United Front is calling for a "Day of Solidarity" on June 19th. Cairo needs many kinds of support – from food and clothing to people educating their friends about Cairo's struggles.

This is the edited tape of a conversation with a saleswoman who works in a 5&10.

I went as far as the sixth grade in school. I'm 57 now. I was sixteen and didn't want to be sixteen in the seventh grade so I quit. I was out of school a year and a half with blood poisoning and one teacher I had left me back twice. When I walked into her classroom the first day, she told me to get to the last row last seat and that's the way it was all year. She just didn't like me. I got her as a teacher twice and it was the same thing again.

After getting married and having a baby at sixteen I became a maid because my mother was a maid. Most jobs I got $35 a month plus room and board. $30 went to board my baby. My husband was a seaman and didn't support us. My mother used to make $8 a month when she came to this country so I thought I was doing pretty good. I was proud I could work and felt I was better off than most people. This was in the Depression. The nicest maid job I had was with a bootlegger. I could eat and talk with the family. We all ate in the kitchen. I had my own room with my baby and $10 a month. The rich people I worked for I couldn't have my baby and most of the time I didn't have my own room. One rich person I was a maid for took money out of my pay for a water glass I broke and a window that was already broken so I quit and she accused me of stealing. Anyway I didn't have anything in common with those people and ate in the kitchen alone so I was very lonely. That's one of the reasons I like my job at the 5&10 better than being a maid. Here I talk to people and no one tells me I'm doing something wrong.

My job is marking the prices on the items and I only spend 2 hours on the counters and no one watches over me. Five kids and another husband later I'm doing well taking home $65.12 from $82.50 a week gross. I started working for this store around Easter time 16 years ago. I made Easter baskets for $1.00 an hour. Then they offered me a fulltime job at $48 a week.

Once they didn't pay me for a day I stayed home sick so I walked out. It was the first rebellious thing I ever did and it felt so good—I was never the same again. The reason I had walked out was that the girl on the bird counter was out for eight days and she got paid for all eight days. She had such a bad job that the manager knew he couldn't get anyone else so fast so he paid her. I had to take care of her counter when she was out and it was a terrible job.

Then my boss offered me $60 a week to stay. It was upsetting in a way—I told him that Jean worked there for 25 years and she was getting $48 so why should I get $60? He told me not to fight other people's battles.

All the women get $82.50 now except part time and floorgirls. When women leave or are fired the boss doesn't replace them—we have eight women less than we had five years ago but we have to get the same work done. The woman on hardware has three counters to take care of now.

The manager has so many gimmicks to get the salesgirls to work harder. Each girl gets a "campaign button" with her name on it and the customers' "vote" for the girls. The salesgirl with the most votes gets $10 in merchandise and a customer's name is taken from a jar and she gets $10 in merchandise too. This makes the girls super polite to customers—they're not usually because its a hectic job. It also pits the women against each other. They even had this contest on television and they hired a model to be a typical 5&10 salesgirl. We were thinking, "Why not one of us?"

The manager tells the salesgirls they can raise the prices on their counters as much as they think people will pay. The girls like that—they want to feel they have some control over their jobs. I guess it makes them feel important to be on the boss's side. He gets a commission from the profits of the store.

A few years ago I talked to the other women about starting a union, but their lives depend on the job. They wanted to organize but they were afraid of getting fired. Most of them didn't get far in school and they have to work because their husbands don't make enough. A year ago there was talk of a union, so the office raised everyone $.10 an hour. Big deal. I tell the women to threaten to quit cause then the boss gets panicked and gives them a raise, but the women are too scared.

The women chip in for everything. I don't mind chipping in for another girl but the brown-nosers start collecting for the manager every Christmas—they buy him a shirt which he doesn't need and give him the leftover money too. These "choice" women give him the gift on the side and none of the other women see him get the gifts. All the gifts are bought in the 5&10 except the manager's. The assistant manager changes every year and the women chip in for his leaving too. I refuse to chip in for them with some other women and the brown-nosers get mad at us. We all get a Christmas bonus—$15 for one-year's service and $5 for each year after that and they take off taxes too.

I like the high-school girls who work at night. We get along good. Only, once one of them told me to get flowers from the basement to fill up the counter so I said to her. "What? No more Indians, all chiefs?"

The prices go up everyday and it's depressing. Now you can buy anything at the 5&10, from refrigerators to pencils and you can probably get it cheaper someplace else. They have less help than years ago and they have more merchandise and prices go up and they blame it on our "wage increases." The manager comments every Christmas that people would buy horseshit if it was on the counter with a price on it. Jean who is working over thirty years now got seven shares of the company's stock as a bonus for twenty-five years' service—she got a $2 dividend every three months—it just went up to $2.50. If she wanted ten shares, she would have had to pay $90 in taxes right away, so she only took seven—she got a bill for taxes anyway. When she got the shares I went out and bought the Wall Street Journal—we had a good laugh.

She once tried to get another job. But if you work at the 5&10 other stores don't consider it a good reference because they think the women are dishonest and it's just like having no reference at all. The salesgirls that work here are very honest—I don't believe any of them steal. The other day my boss (the manager) was going up the stairs and one of the salesgirls was in front of him. He told her to get out of the way, she was going too slow for him. She had her hands in her pockets and he asked her why does she always have her hands in her pockets and then mentioned he was "working on getting rid of the pockets." What does he think, she can put one of the store's T.V.'s in her pocket?

The store has a problem of shoplifting. The first shoplifter I saw was a well-dressed woman and she had a prayer book in her hands. I wouldn't steal cause I wouldn't want my kids to. I don't want them to be dishonest. Some people steal in front of their kids and they can afford to pay for it because they are made to pay for it when they are caught. Sometimes the manager and the floorgirl go to hell with it. Once the floorgirl followed a man in his seventies all around the store. He had a rolled-up newspaper under his arm and she accused him of stealing—he shook out the newspaper and showed he had nothing in it. Many times they'll throw kids out of the store—usually black kids. If a black person comes into the store they say, "Watch that one."

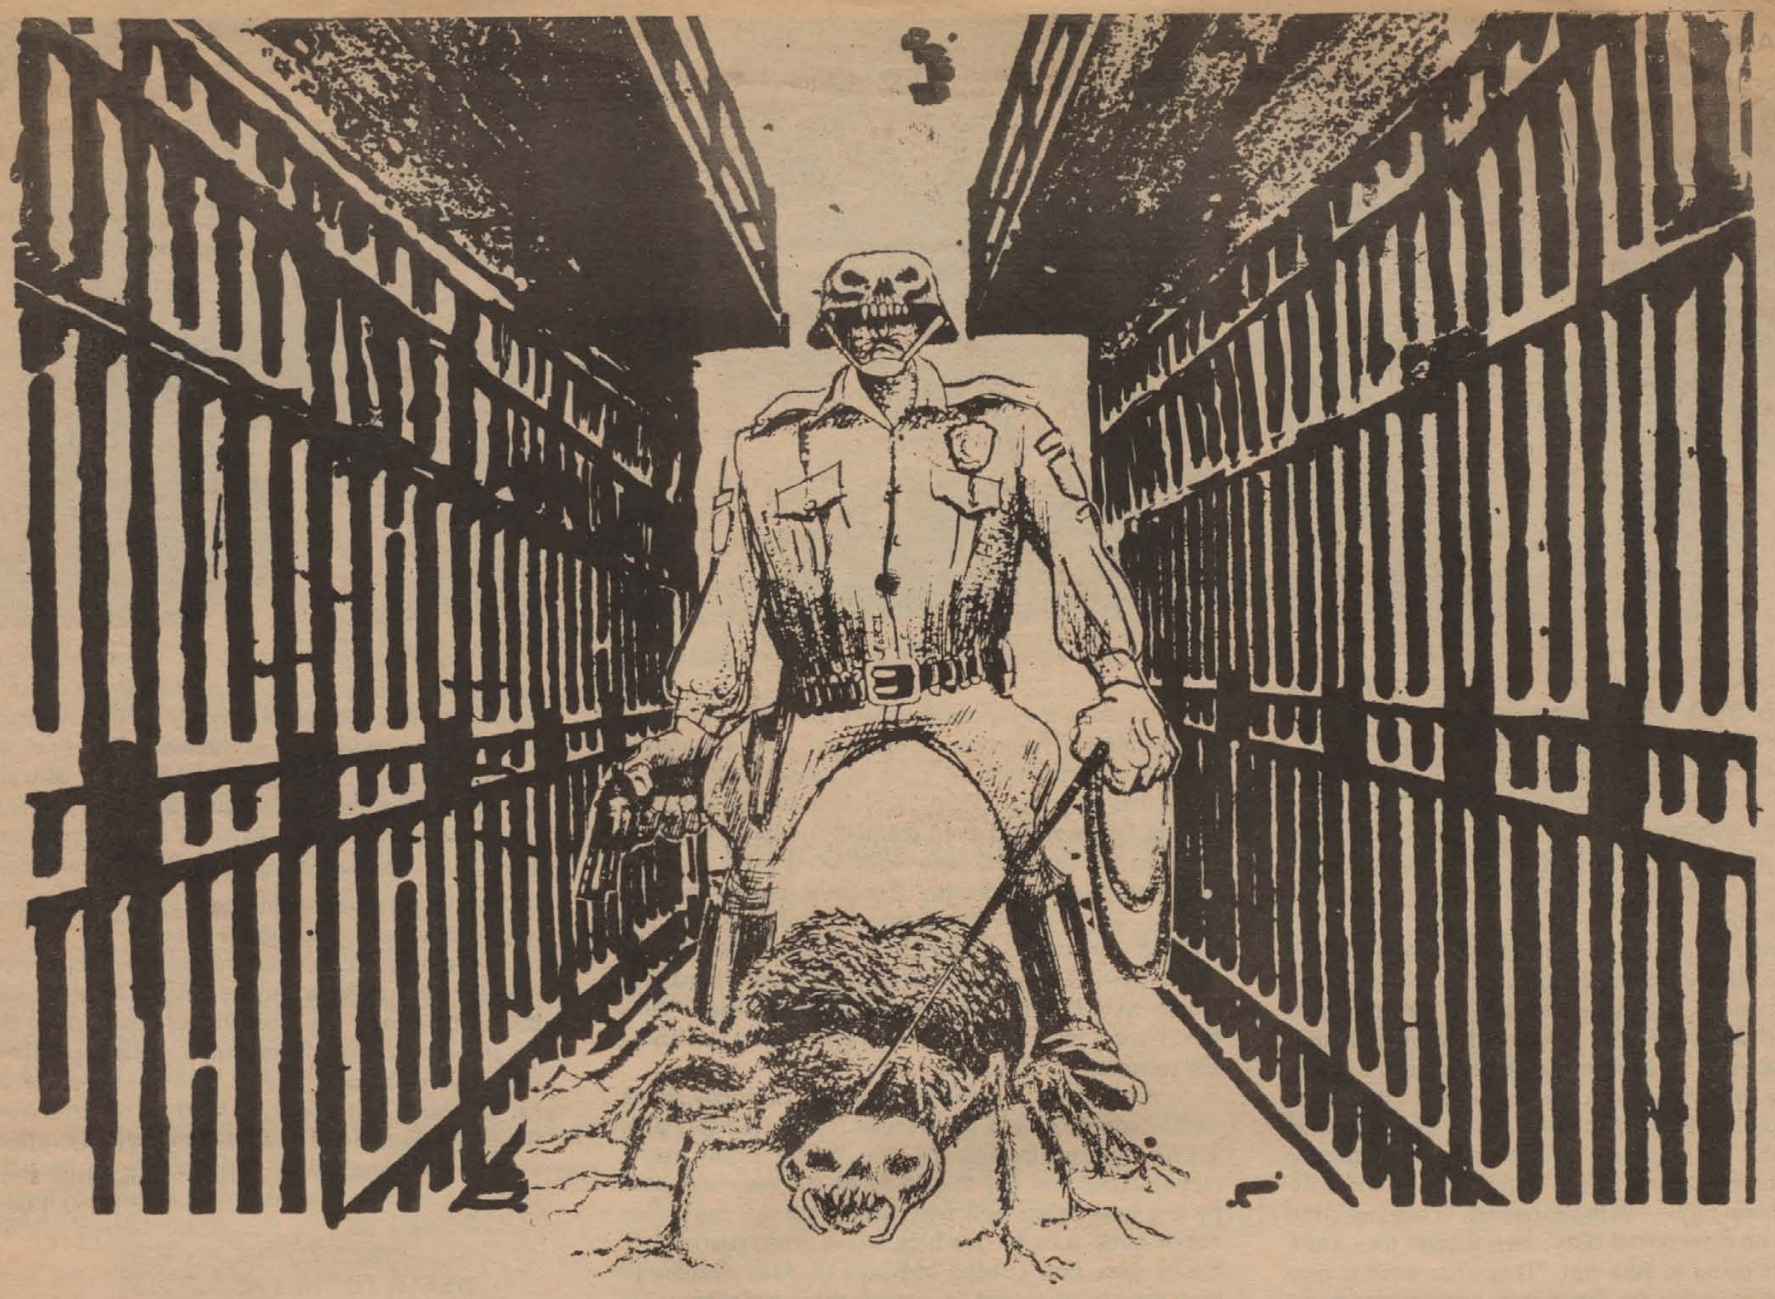
If you're working and you're not getting the right pay you want to steal cause you feel you're getting even with the boss. As a maid you steal what you can cause you're not getting paid enough. They give you a feeling you're no good so you steal from them to make them suffer. I did this once but some of my friends did it a lot. Sometimes the people you work for leave a penny or a nickel around to see if you would take it. Everybody that's got money got it some way and they got it by crooking the people under them. That's how they got rich.

There's a real Hitler behind the lunch counter. She yells at the girls in front of the customers. She's the boss behind there and sometimes the customers complain about her. I feel sorry for her when I'm not mad at her. I know she has a hard life at home and needs to be "somebody." There aren't enough girls at the fountain so they are all pretty irritable. Right now, on top of all that, there's a gimmick of the boss's that drives the girls crazy. There's a sign on the fountain that says, "If your waitress doesn't ask if you want dessert, you get a free dessert." So people say the waitress didn't ask them when she did.

Never eat at any 5&10—they have to use the food up from previous days before they make a new batch. Some of the stuff looks horrible—especially when the jelly apples get a week old, sometimes they get re-dipped. Each girl that works behind the lunch counter has her own tip box. At the end of the day they have to take it to the office and the office personnel count it and take out the tax money from the tips. It's none of their business how much tips the girls get so they shouldn't take the tax money off. Countergirls get less pay than the rest of us too.

The whole story in a nutshell is we work hard. We keep the store clean and stocked but the company is trying to trick us and cheat us in little ways all the time. It's always the little person that gets hurt. It's about time that something happens so it's the rich people that hurt for a change. I'm not anyone's enemy unless they're an enemy to me and it seems to me people aren't seeing who their real friends are.

Two of my daughters and one son worked at this store. If you ask my nine-year-old granddaughter what she wants to be when she grows up she'll tell you a salesgirl at the 5&10. I think it's the best position she's ever seen a woman in, since her mother's on welfare. She likes the colors of the items and she likes to visit me at work. That would be the third generation to work there—but her grandmother wants her to be President of the U.S.



THERE IS NO JUSTICE IN THE COURTS

Two thousand brothers and sisters who are awaiting trial and have not been convicted of any crime are sitting in Cook County Jail. Most of them can't make bail, so they have to endure the inhuman conditions at 26th & Cal. Their only crime is not being rich.

In California, Angela Davis, who is charged only with supplying the guns for a murder, is being held without bail. While Lt. Calley, who has been convicted of 22 premeditated murders, is out on the streets by the direct order of President Nixon. (The people who supplied the guns to mass murderer Calley have not been charged.)

The above examples point out all too clearly that the legal system in the US has nothing to do with justice. Amerikan justice is based on how much money you have, what color you are, and what your political beliefs are.

If we look at some of the Chicago courts, we can see that all of the people—not just Angela Davis— are oppressed by the legal system. Like Women's Court.

Every night the pigs sweep the poor areas of Chicago and pick up 75 to 100 sisters, mostly black, and charge them with loitering or prostitution. Then the pigs make the sisters spend the night in lockup because they can't make bail. The next morning the sisters go to Women's Court at 11th & State.

Women's Court is probably the most openly oppressive court in Chicago. It is segregated, with women on one side and men on the other side of the aisle. The presiding judge, Pig Hetfield, sits upthere making and sexist remarks to all the sisters. And naturally the pigs who made the arrests the night before don't even show up because they know that they don't have a case against any of the sisters they busted. (The pigs are home sleeping so they can sweep the streets again). And if by some freaky chance there is a trial, the "L" goes by every 30 seconds. With all of this noise, the judge can't even hear what's being said. But the usual case is that a sister spends the night in the lockup; has to listen to some bullshit fronpig Hetfield; and then is cut loose, only to be harrassed again. Obviously there is not even a pretense of justice in Women's Court.

Another one of the ways that the legal system is supposed to guarantee justice for the accused is providing her or him with a public defender, if one cannot afford a lawyer. But public defenders (even if they want to do a good job) are so overworked that the first time they see you and hear your story is in front of the judge. At the same time, the prosecution is presenting its case. A majority of the time, though, the public defender doesn't care about your case or getting you off. He doesn't care because the state, who is prosecuting you, is paying his salary!

Still another way that the courts can't be impartial and just is the application of political pressure. On May 16th and 17th, there were stories in the newspapers about the lenient sentences being handed out in Branch 27 by Judge pig Maher in Rackets Court (which handles gambling and weapons cases). On Tuesday and Wednesday of that week, the percentage of convictions skyrocketed and lawyers familiar with the court wouldn't ask for a trial in any cases, even if they were sure that they would win. The lawyers knew that pig Maher was convicting everyone. Since the court was so overcrowded, the earliest continuances weren't until the middle of July. So if you were busted on a bum rap in May and couldn't make your bond, you definitely wouldn't want to go to trial in May because of the sure conviction. What you would have to do is sit in jail until July, incarcerated for nothing.

Rising Up Angry recognizes the true nature of the legal system that oppresses poor people and Angry has set up a legal program to provide people with lawyers or legal advice for little or no cost. We don't believe that you'll get justice in the courts until the whole system changes, but we can help you deal with the courts. If you've got a legal problem, give us a call or come by the office.

GI'S TELL NO LIES

May 15th, Armed Forces Day, and there's a clean-cut, all-American GI up there making a speech to a crowd of civilians and GIs outside Ft. Campbell. Listen:

"'The US must get out of Southeas Asia Now! We demand full constitutœnal rights for all GIs. Don't use GIs for riot control and strike breaking. Free all political prisoners."

The speaker was Larry Cox, an active duty GI from Ft. Campbell, and the rally was called by GIs for Peace and Justice.

Armed Forces Day is the day the Pentagon and lifers use to glorify US imperialism and its military control of the world. This year though GIs for Peace and Justice used Armed Forces Day for their own demonstration and rally to expose the Pentagon and lifers as the real war criminals and to show the world that most GIs don't dig working for the pigs. The tactic worked perfectly and the pigs exposed themselves completely.

The brass reacted to the demonstration the only way they knew how--with repression. They put a lot of brothers on riot control duty, even though they knew there wasn't going to be a riot. They attempted to give brothers active in GIs for Peace and Justice extra duty. This didn't work because lots of brothers missed work that day and others are filing article 138's against their C.O.'s.

Despite the repression, there were over 400 people at the rally. The whole thing began with a march in front of the base with all kinds of people driving by to show their support. Then Larry Cox started the rally. He was followed by Dave Lehrman, another active duty GI from Ft. Campbell, who rapped in Spanish to all the Latin brothers and sisters. The third speaker, brother Smitty, was a black Nam vet who had just been discharged. Smitty said he got hip to what the war was all about when he saw the lifers who called Vietnamese Gooks were the same ones who called him nigger. Then Mrs. Ware, a black woman, explained even further about the racism at Ft. Campbell.

After these 4 speakers from Ft. Campbell, there were 4 speakers from out of town. Juan Ramos, Deputy Minister of Defense of the Young Lords Party, rapped about the way Puerto Rican GIs have been used by the imperialists and that GIs should see themselves not as hired guns for the pigs, but as urban guerillas for the people. Bob Lawson of Rising Up Angry explained how we are all struggling against the same enemy--US imperialism--but that it takes place on different fronts, from Indochina to Chicago to Ft. Campbell, and that it wasn't over once you got out of the service. Four sisters from Women's Liberation explained the atrocities the Vietnamese women face in this war. The final speaker was sister Gail, of the Black Panther Party, who stressed the need to wage revolution everyday--not just Saturday afternoon in the park. After all of the speeches came the music. The whole thing was a beautiful success and it must have really freaked the lifers.

May 15 at Ft. Campbell should be seen as a beginning--not an end or an isolated event. GIs are builfing the unity among the races that is necessary to destroy the imperialist army from within. The revolution must be waged daily, and correct ideology must develop at Ft. Campbell and wherever brothers are imprisoned in the pigs' military. So now all the beautiful brothers and sisters who came out to demonstrate on May 15 must take their anger to a higher, more disciplined level.

POWER TO THE REVOLUTIONARY GI'S!
ALL POWER TO THE PEOPLE!
DEATH TO THE FASCIST PIG!

Armed Farces Day, Chicago, May 15, 1971. Mayor daley and the brass at Great Lakes Navel Training Base cancelled their parade down State Street. This was the first time in the parades history that it had to be cancelled. The Sun Times said the brass thought they didn' t have enough man power to have the parade, because some sections of the base had been moved out to other places. But, rumors were going around that Daley was afraid that the people of Chicago might disrupt the parade with an anti-war demonstration(May 15 was one week after the May Day demonstrations in Washington, D.C.)

There was a rally and rock concert at Great Lakes Navel Base and it turned out to be the biggest anti-war demonstration IN SUPPORT of the GI's in Chicago's history. None of the sailors wanted to volunteer for guard duty, so most of the sailors were given orders to report for guard duty for that morning by Lt. Hastings (who's in charge of security). They were ordered to stand 1 every 15 feet all around the base (a few miles around), with rifles in case any demonstrators might try to invade the base. Most of them looked like they really wanted to get the hell out of there, and many, who were off duty, joined the march.

We talked with one navy wife who told us her husband would be off guard duty at 5 pm, she hoped the rally and rock concert would go on till then, because he really wanted to take part. She said none of the guys wanted to be on duty, because they were all against the war and were just waiting to get out of the navy. She said she hated it because none of the sailors' families ever got decent housing (there were cockroaches in all their cottages), they got less than welfare wages, and dig this, the brass' wives had their own separate maternity ward in the Great Lakes Hospital!

She said we shouldn't go swimming in the lake around there because of the pollution caused by the Abbott Laboratories in North Chicago. In addition to polluting the lake, Abbott also makes chemicals for the war in Indochina. The pentagon is attempting to destroy the life and land of the Indochinese people by dropping chemicals as well as regular bombs on the people of Vietnam, Cambodia & Laos. So this sister has a long list of reasons why she hates the military.

At the rally, the Rising Up Angry sister who spoke, told people to write to their brothers and sisters in the service to tell them about Madame Binh's statement for the South Vietnamese Liberation Army. The South Vietnamese Liberation Forces will not shoot at GIs unless they shoot at Vietnamese people first and they will aid any U.S. serviceman who wants to desert, go home, or even go over to the other side. Because of the language barrier and because the brass doesn't want GIs to know about this statement, we should explain it to the brothers we know in the service, so they can contact the South Vietnamese for help.

Two of the brothers of the Camp McCoy 3 spoke. They told how they were charged for blowing up the water and electrical systems at Camp McCoy. The lifers were trying to lock these brothers up for a long time, because they are against the war and belong to the American Servicemen's Union. They were charg-with the 3 bombings altho it is clear that they had nothing to do with them. Finally they were discharged from the army after the charges were dropped.

The Chicago Area Military Project (CAMP) came to the march and spoke about how the anti-war movement should give full support to the brothers in the service. A sister who spoke said that people in the movement should stop calling GIs names and realize that some of them are leading the fight to end the war. Right On!

More and more GIs are joining the anti-war movement because they realize that the army is just exploiting them to oppress other peoples. Out brothers in the service are refusing riot duty and refusing to fight in Indochina. We support you 100% brothers.
